Why train with us?

Ampleforth College and our partner schools in the Diocese of Middlesbrough TSA are looking to recruit and train well-qualified graduates with a passion for teaching who are sympathetic to the Roman Catholic faith. We particularly welcome applications from practising Catholics.

Our priority is to recruit trainee teachers who share our vision and values, and have the potential and the motivation to become outstanding teachers.

Our School Direct secondary programmes lead to a PGCE with QTS at Masters Level. The programmes are delivered in partnership with, and accredited by Leeds Trinity University, a highly-respected HEI and provider of Initial Teacher Education.
